ARCTIC

PRISTINE WILDERNESS, CAPTIVATING WILDLIFE AND A TOUCHING VULNERABILITY

Bursting with endearing wildlife and breathtaking landscapes, the vast and spectacular, yet surprisingly accessible, Arctic region offers remarkable wildlife encounters with whales, walrus, bird species and of course, polar bears and a personal insight into their struggle to survive in a changing world.

“We have just returned from our Spitsbergen trip with Wildfoot and had to tell you what an amazing time we had! We saw 6 polar bears including a mother with 2 cubs as well as whales, walrus and lots of birds. The ship was really comfortable and the guides were so helpful and friendly. Thank you so much for making it all so easy.”
